

Ortelle

ROME. — The Colosseum.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "Oilette" Postcard 7554

From "ROME," illustrated by Alberto Pisa (A. & C. Black).

By Appointment.

CARTE POSTALE

POSTKARTE

TUCK'S POST CARD

The Colosseum The Colosseum is easily defined as the Flavian Amphitheatre. It was capable of holding 80,000. It is probably not the first building of its kind on the site. Some of the brickwork is of the time of Nero, but none of the outside is earlier than Titus. History relates that a hundred lions were exhibited at once on the stage of the Colosseum.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CTPA 12.9